THE FUTURE OF BRISBANE!

Our town can progress only to that extent which its population so intends. If you, as a local resident, wish for better public utilities, better police and fire protection, or better trading facilities it is primarily necessary to support local movements for betterment.

The voters displayed intense interest in the police election recently by posting the highest vote on record. That, in itself, is a good sign. A sign that right thinking people are aware what good police protection can mean to our general welfare. There will inevitably be many mistakes made by the new arm of the law but as long as those mistakes are HONEST ones we can expect progress.

Have you shopped in Brisbane lately? Have you scanned the local Merchant's regular ads in this and previous editions? Remember! UNITED WE STAND but divided we fall! Let's not fall short of our obligations to patronize our local Merchants. Your credit is just as good in Brisbane as elsewhere. Our Merchants are continuously called upon for donations to various funds which always benefit the general population. Seldom do they refuse. Is their interest in improving Brisbane greater than yours or mine? It would seem so, wouldn't it! Let's all trade locally!

PATRONIZE YOUR LOCAL STORES!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Three cheers for the men responsible for the wonderful new team we have in Brisbane. I understand, they give their free time one night a week. Too bad there weren't more like them in Brisbane.

These kind keep many boys, with idle minds, out of mischief, and an opportunity for a career as a hobby.

An Admirer.

EL RANCHO MARKET ROBBED!

A robbery was reported to Police Officer Mullen on March 18, by the owner, Mr. Walter Carter of the El Rancho Market situated on Bayshore Highway.

Inspection of the building proved that entrance had been gained through a rear window. A mop handle apparently had been used to break the glass as particles were embedded in the wood.

Suspicion was cast on the previous leasee a Robert Compton of Oklahoma whose whereabouts unknown at the time. Mysterious long distance phone calls made by him and packages had been mailed out during the past several weeks led authorities to believe that he must be the burglar.

Mr. Carter reported missing quantities of groceries and cartons of cigarettes.

Robert Compton is said to have left his wife at a hotel in Marysville and disappeared.

Reports have it that his car, a 1938 Chevrolet, 2 door sedan, license number unknown was last seen in South City the day after the robbery.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS

On March 29, the Brisbane Fire Department presented Captain Hayes of the San Francisco Fire Dept. with a diploma and gold badge in appreciation of the work in schooling of the department.

Funeral Services were held Monday, March 29 from the Chapel of W. A. Cook and Company of So. San Francisco for Mr. Lena B. Thompson of Klamath Street.

The deceased was a native of California, and a resident of Brisbane for the past seven years. She had been busy in her house and garden during the morning and death came very suddenly from a heart attack in the afternoon. She is survived by her husband, Edward Thompson, and a daughter-in-law of San Carlos.

Interment was at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Has anyone noticed recently the worried frowns on the brows of our eighth grade girls who play on the school's basketball team?

For the past three Fridays a game has been scheduled to be played with the Bayshore team and to date each game has been rained out.

However, Miss Barry has promised that the first sunny day, Friday or not, the girls will be allowed to meet their opponents.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Byars and daughter Diane are leaving Brisbane. They have sold their home at 233 Mariposa St. and Bill is entering the Army once again to become a permanent member.

Mrs. Byars is originally from Louisville, Kentucky and Bill is to resume active duty at Fort Knox near Louisville.

Their many friends wish them the best of luck for the future.

Mr. George Radoff of George town has been reported very ill.

How about the Mothers and Fathers who have children in Jefferson supporting their aquacade May 26, 27, 28. We have some of our own Brisbane girls in this event. Pat Hasking, Carol Hite Joy Folgelman are participating. let's give our help.

Every Tuesday night lately the quiet of our main street has been penetrated by snappy beat of drums and bugle notes. It's only George Brady and Dick Hosking putting the drum and bugle corp through their weekly practice.

Sounds wonderful boys, keep up the good work.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frank of Alvarado street are enjoying a visit from their daughter Mrs. D. E. Koenke and granddaughter Bonnie Dee of Portland, Oregon.

LEGION NEWS

Members of the Brisbane Legion Post No 473 and Auxiliary spent an enjoyable Sunday afternoon April 11, at Palo Alto.

After enjoying a wonderful luncheon and entertainment given by the Palo Alto Post the group was taken on an extensive tour of the grounds and buildings of the Veteran's Hospital.

"Dutch" Redquist, Director of Special Service at the hospital personally conducted the very educational and interesting tour explaining the various types of wards, industries and trades in which the patients were given every opportunity to try to "find their way back."

Mr. Redquist made mention of the fact that donations for magazines were acceptable and stressed the fact that the hospital would prefer money in order that they might select the magazine subscriptions as the hospital librarians knew the ones most needed.

Those representing Brisbane were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fassett, Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hooper and Mr. and Mrs. H. Earle Woodard.

LOCAL MAN ON ROUND-THE-WORLD CRUISE

Mr. E. R. Whitson of 222 San Benito Road, Brisbane, who is stationed aboard the U. S. S. Lloyd Thomas, one of the destroyers accompanying the U. S. S. Aircraft Carrier Valley Forge, expected to be with his family shortly after docking at San Diego on May 12. However, the personnel received notice of a revised cruise itinerary and will instead visit ports in Southern England and Southern Norway.

Mr. Whitson's communications home has described the round-the-world cruise as an especially interesting one. On one occasion he relates sighting a school of whales and being near enough to count approximately thirty-two of them. Before entering a strange port each member of the crew is given a paper with a description of the town or city which they are about to visit. This is to acquaint the men with the people and their characteristics and to familiarize them with the use of the money, etc.

This trip is hoped to be Mr. Whitson's last as he is being retired from the Navy having given his services for the past 39 years.

(The following article is reprinted from the San Francisco News and is the cruise in which Mr. Whitson is taking part.)

U. S. Carrier Stages "Battle" In Persian Gulf

CAIRO, Egypt, March 28—The U. S. Aircraft Carrier Valley Forge Sunday continued its round-the-world cruise after a display of mimic aerial fighting over the Persian Gulf.

Crown Prince Saud of Saudi Arabia called the signals for the mock air combats.

The 27,000-ton flattop left the American oil refinery port at Ras Tenura, Saudi Arabia, Friday after a three-day courtesy call. Crown Prince Saud boarded the carrier Thursday as the guest of Rear Adm. M. Martin, Commander of Carrier Division N. 5.

About 100 pilots under Captain Richard W. Ruble, of Carrier Air Group No. 11, had worked out special maneuvers, including the spelling of the name "Saud" with planes in the air. However, a dust storm restricted visibility, and only two fighters were catapulted from the ship.

At Adm. Martin's invitation, Crown Prince Saud gave the signals for the fighters to dive low in a mock strafing attack and for firing rockets. The royal guest showed keen interest in the voice control by which fliers aloft are directed from the ship.

BUSINESSMEN'S CLUB

At the last regular meeting on April 13 the business men of Brisbane voted to table any consideration of affiliating with a national service club indefinitely.

Well over one hundred dollars was pledged by the various members and the club itself as a donation to local bugle and drum corps after Dick Hosking addressed the group with a plea for aid in securing funds for equipment.

We understand the membership of the Bugle and Drum Corps is made up entirely from the Scout and Cub rosters and we feel the boys are doing a bang-up good job.

The new equipment recently purchased consists of bugles, drums and a Lyra.

JUVENILES APPREHENDED BY POLICE OFFICER

Early Sunday evening March 21, Donald Cook at the Fountain of Youth relayed a telephone message to Police Officer Mullen that a gang from San Francisco intended to "come over and clean up the town of Brisbane."

Officer Mullen immediately contacted the Sheriff's office and two Highway Patrol cars were dispatched.

About 6:35 P. M. a Buick car containing six juveniles speeded through Visitation Ave. At Officer Mullen's approach to stop them they attempted to run him down. He gave chase through the main street at 65 miles per hour. At the Recreation Center the fleeing car stopped and the boys fled on foot towards Bayshore Highway.

With the help of Cliff Gannon, Lou Terry, Larry Jenkins and other Brisbane firemen and some boys playing at the Recreation

BRISBANE POLICE COMMISSION PUBLIC MEETING

Held at the School House
April 15, 1948

The meeting was called to order by Commissioner Bybee at 8:30 P. M.

The first order of business was the opening of the Tally List and reading the official results of the recent election.

1. The business of determining by lot the term of office of each elected commissioner. Commissioner Schmidt challenged the legality of drawing lots for the respective terms of office. The clerk read an excerpt from the Health and Safety Code, State of California, Article 3, Section 20062-20063, entitled, Election of Successors, Classification of terms. A discussion followed from the floor as to the method of determining the terms of office for the chosen Commissioners. Some of those participating in the discussion were: Mr. Reinhart, King, Edwards, Fred A. Schmidt, Pierson, Gannon and others. After one hour and fifteen minutes of heated debate, Commissioner Bybee ruled that the decision was left to the People. As a result the following terms of office were announced: Commissioner Schmidt, 3 years; Commissioner Bybee, 2 years; Commissioner Krampert, 1 year.

2. Election of Chairman of the Commission. Commissioner Krampert made a motion and seconded by Schmidt that Commissioner Bybee remain as chairman of the Brisbane Police Commission. Motion carried.

3. Reading of minutes of all meetings held up to date. All accepted. The clerk acknowledged a check of $15.00 from Fred A. Reinhart to be deposited toward the Police district. It was made known that all eight Candidates had contributed for the election expenses.

4. The chairman asked for an open discussion in regards for ways and means to finance the Police District. The problem was left up to the Commissioners.

5. Commissioner Krampert explained the duties, authority and expenses of a Police Chief.

6. Suggestions from the floor. Ways and means of bonding police officers. Investigate unlimited Police Districts.

The legality of Commissioner Krampert's resident was questioned. The correspondence between Mr. Bybee and the District Attorney on the matter was read in public. After some discussion the Commission ruled that the decision of the District Attorney was final, that Mr. Krampert was a legal resident and elector of Brisbane, prior to the election.

7. Officer Mullen made his report which started a lively banter between Commissioners and the Officer. Commissioner Krampert staid any further arguments by stating that the Commissioners were all out for the police officer and that they had all made mistakes, including the officer but hoped to do their best for the welfare of Brisbane in the future.

8. Mr. Arthur Kennedy described the difference between a limited and unlimited Police district and the arious legal methods for raising money for the District. Mr. King suggested that letters be sent to all who voted asking them to subscribe 50c per month to the district.

Meeting adjourned 10:35 P. M.

Signed:

A. F. KOCH
Clerk of Comm.

BRISBANE RECREATION BASKETBALL TEAMS

Basketball season has officially ended at the Recreation Centre. With the end of the season we can look back now and see that we had a very good season. The end of the season sees four teams put out of action. The girls team, boys 90 lb. team, boys 110 lb. team and boys 145 lb. team.

The girls team ended the season with a 300% average. Boys 90 lb. team with a 500% average. Boys 145 lb. team a 400% average and the Boys 110 lb. team with the Recreation basketball championship. I want to personally thank all the people who helped us out on our transportation problem and also all the players for their wonderful cooperation given me throughout the season. With such a successful season behind us we can all look ahead to a much better and brighter season in the coming year. Also our appreciation and thanks too Mrs. Woodard for her wonderful cooperation in the past season.

Thanking you
Mr. Eddie Davenport,

BRISBANE DRUM & BUGLE CORPS

To all you people of Brisbane, I feel this should be written to inform you of Brisbane's wonderful drum and bugle corps.

First of all, all sorts of credit is due to two fine hard working gentlemen by the names of George Brady and Dick Hoskins. These two fellows have put a lot of hard work and effort into this, and as of my prediction last month we can expect big things from our drum and bugle corps. If by any chance some of you people have not seen them perform by all means do so, as you are really missing something.

The drum and bugle corps so far, has and will continue to run strictly on donations. Mr. Hosking and Mr. Brady have themselves raised and spent $300.00 dollars for the buying and repairing of equipment for the corps. They are still trying to raise money through donations as the expanding of the corp means more equipment etc. If any of you can afford a donation of any dimension, please contact George or Dick. The corp in itself will bring much praise and glory to all of Brisbane. Their participation in different events will bring much publicity to Brisbane. We can all feel very proud of our corp so let's everyone give them a little support. Many thanks also to all the people who have so far donated.

County Recreation Director,

SPORT EVENT DAY

Saturday, April 17 the Recreation Department finally ran off their sports event day.

After being rained out for two Saturdays in a row we finally had the good fortune to have a pretty fair day for the event. The event turned out to be a huge success and all was run off very smoothly.

The events started at 11 and ended at 4 o'clock. The awarding of the many fine prizes were then distributed.

During a break in events, free ice cream, milk, chocolate milk, cookies, life savers and candy was served to everyone. All the children got all they wanted I believe.

A public address system was used to announce events and winners. Records were also played during events and tabulations.

Due to the wonderful cooperation received from Mr. Terry, Mr. Grabosky, Mr. Williams, Mr. Brady and Mr. Stewart, the events were run off without an error and according to schedule. At this time I would personally like to thank all of the above mentioned gentlemen.

Also once again my personal thanks to all the Merchants and Organizations for their fine contributions of prizes. Also Marin Dairymen, Bordens, Hostess Cakes, Dairy Belle, Swifts and Orangette and Grapette Companies for their fine donations. Also to Marin Dell sponsored Buddah's Amateur Hour for their publicity on our event.

The Recreation Department is very grateful for all the fine cooperation received and assures us that in the future our different events and activities can be bigger and more successful.

Thanking you,
Mr. Eddie Davenport,
County Recreation Director,
Brisbane, California.

Introducing: "ALPHABET SOUP"

By Bill Herren

In these days of high speed, jet propulsion, short cuts, and time saving gadgets, things happen so fast we seldom know what's cookin'.

Now there's only one sad reason for this appalling state of affairs: The English Language!

By different combinations of twenty-six letters, Shakespeare unscrambled fifty thousand words to tell a simple story.

We haven't time anymore for that. Something had to be done.

To give the language the long-needed shot in the arm, we have compiled "Alphabet Soup."

It is a fictorial picturnary strewn with dippynitions so that the student of the new slanguage may readily acquire the ability to talk his head off without saying much.

For instance, instead of writing a friend a long tale of woe cussing out your draft board, simply say: "I'm selectrified."

The friend will immediately get a picture of the whole situation; he'll know the shock of selectricity came from selective circuit.

Similarly, why make a lot of unnecessary conversation with a clerk over the purchase of a mere candleholder.

Just grab your shopping bag pull out a jar of pickles and reach for the ceiling.

He will see that you are a canned dill holder and will wrap one up for you.

With the same pickles you can set them on your bald head and the clerk will roll out a cannon ball

Grab yourself a handful of the pretty drapes of a department store window and start chinning yourself.

The clerk will recognize the symptoms of your conversationless desire and wheel out a selection of curtain hangers.

If he waves a railroad pick, you may select any hanger you wish. But if no pick, no choice.

If you see two animals going in opposite directions with their long necks tangled up around a traffic signal, you may tell the whole confusing story in two words: "Jraffic Jam."

When an attorney wishes to impress a jury at a car crash trial in which his client had the right-of-way, he shouts, "Co-wrecked."

The opposition counters with a loud, "Incorrect."

The Judge bangs his gavel and bellows, "Who wrecked?"

The answer to that one ends the trial.

If you have difficulty in explaining where you checked your feet while at the dude ranch, just make a revolving motion with a spoon in a bowl held upside down over your head; your friends will get the stirrup idea quick.

Editor's Note:

Bill Herren, the Alphabet Soup man says he will draw a cartoon of the best dippination sent in for each issue. The sender will receive the original 8x10 inch drawing. Next five best will be printed in the column.

BRISBANE RECREATION CENTRE

This bit of information is to inform the people of Brisbane as to what is going on down here at the Recreation Centre. As we stated last month, improvements are to be made.

At the present time through the wonderful cooperation of the County Road Department—who is working hand in hand with the Recreation Department, many improvements are now being made. A 100 car capacity parking lot has put in and a fine job it is. Top soil has been put in on the sides and in front of the building.

Three beautiful concrete walks are now in, giving us three separate entrances to the building.

A track smoothed out and encircling the lagoon has been put in. This to be used for bike races, foot races, etc.

Our present baseball field is the next item on the list. It is to be filled with top soil, leveled, graded and rolled to perfection.

For the present time telephone poles donated by Mr. C. Stewart will be used to enclose the playground areas. They will be put along the inside of the parking lot, along and across the present street and all along the baseball field (third base side) to the creek. This will keep all cars out from any part of the grounds, except the parking lot, and make it a much safer area for all the children.

Lawns and shrubbery and all sorts of plants are being planned out now for our top soil in front and on the sides of our building.

The work that has been done so far is a wonderful job and in the couple of months many of your people will not recognize our Recreation Centre.

Mr. Eddie Davenport.

VETERANS POST No. 9769

Installation of officers of the Walter A. Blair Post No. 9769 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held on Friday, April 23, at 8:30 P. M. at the Legion Hall.

Presentation of Charter and Colors — Colors were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Blair.

"ASK THE BUILDER"

Q. In our new home we wish to use lumber that has been termite proofed. Does lumber treated for termites have an odor which can be noticed in the finished house?

A. No. Lumber treated with chromated zink chloride does not have a noticeable odor. This treatment not only repels termites but retards decay and resists fire to a measurable degree.

Q. We have a concrete block house which is stuccoed on the outside. When it rains water seeps in around the doors and windows soaking the walls. What can we do about it?

A. Check carefully around your window and door frames. Probably you will find a number of cracks have developed where the concrete joins the wood. Fill these with a good calking compound or mastic. A calking gun makes the easier, but a putty knife will suffice. Force the mastic well into the cracks until you obtain a perfect seal between wood and concrete. There are several good calking compounds on the market, some black, some off-white. The lighter ones eliminate the danger of smearing black on your stucco walls, but if you do use black mastic, wipe the smears off with kerosene or gasoline.

Q. We have concrete floors and find ordinary linoleums unsatisfactory due to moisture penetration the floor. What about the new rubberized linoneums? Does floor moisture affect them too?

A. By laying rubberized linoleum in the following manner on concrete floors, dealers are getting satisfactory results. First the floor must be cured well, at least three months old. Spread a adhesive properties over the floor and cover with black building paper. A 15-pound felt will do. Make sure the felt adheres evenly. Avoid eleatinos, toe catchers and bubbles. Let stand several days and tramp down well. The more walking you do on the felt, the better. Finish by pasting the rubberized linoleum onto the felt base with a good waterproofing compound, and you should have no further difficulty with moisture penetration from your concrete floors.

Q. We plan to build a fireplace and want to get maximum efficiency as we shall be dependent upon it for a large share of our heat. Is it possible to heat two rooms with one fireplace?

A. Yes, locate it on an inside wall. If you are going to depend upon your fireplace for heat though, you will want to invest in a heat circulating unit. Many such units provide for outlets in adjoining rooms. Consult your local dealers. Most manufacturers of heat circulating fire boxes publish pamphlets giving complete construction and installation details. Pamphlets are free for the asking.

Q. I want to build an incinerator, but don't know what type or how to build it. Can you help me? Which is more efficient the round or skquare type?

A. A round incinerator is the best type for complete, fast burning of trash. Nothing lodges in the corners to smoke, smolder or attract flies. Detailed construction information on how to build the best round type incinerator can be had by writing the Extension Division, University of California, Berkeley, California.

Published by the County Recreation Commission

FLOOD PARK OPENING

Saturday, May 8th, has been set as the official opening of the 1948 season. First plans called for a general play-day but due to a conflict with several local programs and special events it was decided to abandon this part of the opening festivities. The recreation department will however, hold "open house" for all children and they will be admitted to the pool free of charge.

The pool will open at noon and remain open until six o'clock. These hours will also prevail on Saturdays and Sundays thereafter until school vacations begin when the pool will go on its full time daily schedule. This full-time schedule will find the pool open every day except Mondays from noon until six and the admission rates will be the same as last year:

14c for children up to 12;
20c for 'teen agers
and 30c for adults;
all prices including tax.

Season tickets good for ten swims will also be available at 90c; $1.40 and 2.40 (including tax).

As in the past years, free swimming lessons will be offered but these will not begin until July and applications for enrollment should be made during the month of June.

KITE DAY — MARBLE AND TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

Old Man Weather has not been very co-operative with the result that both the kite day and the tennis tournament had to be postponed. As the program stands now, both of these events will now take place on Saturday, April 24th, the same day as the marble tournament. The latter will be held at 10 A. M. and the kite flying at 2 P. M. while the tennis play will begin at 9 A. M. and continue throughout the day with the finals being held on Sunday, April 25th. All events at Flood Park.

The schedule finds the Aloise Market of Burlingame meeting the San Mateo Merchants at San Mateo; the Redwood City Beavers tangling with the San Carlos Grays at the latter's diamond; the Sullivan All-Stars of San Mateo clashing with the San Bruno Newells at San Bruno; and also the Palo Alto Legion crossing bats with the Hagen-Bells also of Palo Alto at the municipal park in that city. All games were scheduled for 2:30 P. M.

Games will be played each Sunday until well into September and some good fast ball is in store for the fans.

WOODSIDE AND BRISBANE PLAY-DAYS

On Saturday, May 1st, the Youth Activities Committee of Woodside will sponsor a play-day for the children of the area. Numerous competitive events have been arranged and awards will be made to the winners. Dick Jones, recreational director for the district, is in charge of the program.

Eddie Davenport, Recreation Director for Brisbane, likewise planned a gala "Sports Day" for his area on Saturday, April 17th. This event originally set for April 10th, was rained out and hence set ahead to the new date. As at Woodside, the program was provided with a wide variety of athletic events and many fine prizes, provided by the merchants of the town, to the victors.

nouncement that the Recreational facilities at the old Tanforan Naval Station were to be turned over to San Bruno and the County Recreation Department, we have been besieged with inquiries as to what and when! All we can say is that we have seen a copy of the telegram from Congressman Jack Anderson in which he stated that the Navy Department has approved a revocable permit for the use of the facilities. The actual permit has not been received nor have the conditions been made known. Until these factors are cleared up we can offer no answers to the queries.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Natasha Carney, popular secretary of the recreation department, became Mrs. James Bonner on Sunday, April 11th, at a beautiful double-ring ceremony in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church at Redwood City.

The groom is also a member of the staff of this department. Sincere congratulations to the happy couple.

ABOUT PICNICS

With the rapid approach of the summer season many picnic reservations are now coming into the office. If you are thinking along these lines therefore, it would be wise to get your application in soon. Groups of 25 or more must make a reservation and only San Mateo County groups may make such reservations on Sundays or holidays. A clean-up deposit fee, returnable if the area is left in satisfactory condition, must be posted. The amount varies with the size of the group. These regulations apply to both Flood and Memorial Parks except that out-of-county groups may be accommodated at Memorial at any time.

PICTURESQUE WEDDING FOR BRIBANE COUPLE

Recent wedding rites were held for Melody D. Ingram and James Nick Guice at a candle-light ceremony in The First Baptist Church in Brisbane, Reverend Edward Lane officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with cala lilies, greens, and spring blossoms and the entire center aisle was flower lined with garlands of white flowers and ribbon on each pew. Tall candelabra lined both side of the altar and candles also were used on the piano.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, H. C. Ingram, was lovely in a white wool crepe suit which emphasized her tiny waist and had a ballerina length skirt. She carried a prayer book and an old fashioned bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia and wore a tiny white hat with a full veil set back on her blond hair.

She followed the old tradition of something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue. Her attendant was Miss Laura Lee Ross who, with dark hair in contrast to the bride's fairness, wore a pale pink ballerina length suit of gabardine and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink bouvardia. Miss Shirley Babbirk was in charge of the wedding music.

Best man was Wendel Gamble, former resident of Warren, the ushers were Robert Carty and Robert Tann.

Mrs. Ingram, the mother of the bride wore a grey two-piece ensemble with grey and white accessories. Her corsage was red roses. Mrs. Guice wore a navy blue costume suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

WOMEN'S CORNER

Already from its soft brown bed
The crocus lifts its drowsy head,
And stares with slow and wondering eyes
Into the changeful April skies.
James B. Kenyon

Viewpoint:

The Sun is rising on another day. What can I wish that this day may bring to me? A few friends who understand me, and yet remain my friends. A work to do which has real value, without which the world would feel poorer. An understanding heart. . . a little leisure . . . and the patience to wait for the coming of these things, with the wisdom to know them when they come. —W. R. Hunt.

Pertinent Paragraphs:

A man is as young as he feels and a woman is as young as her imagination keeps her.

A happy child is not one who is never unhappy, but one who is spared unnecessary grief, fear and emotional upsets.

Three things a man cannot do; tune a radio in on the hairline; raise a shade to an even point; dress himself without saying "where."

—Ladies Home Journal

Recipe Department:

In answer to a request for another good cookie recipe, we think you will like this combination cookie-candy recipe:

CHOCOLATE KISSES

1/2 p.g. Chocolate Chips
5 cups Cornflakes
1 can Sweetened Condensed Milk
Combine Chocolate Chips and Cornflakes. (Don't melt the chips; they will soften in baking.) Add condensed milk, mix lightly. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet. Bake slow oven (325F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Remove from baking sheet immediately, with spatula. If Kisses stick, place sheet over low flame for a few seconds. Recipe makes about 40 Kisses.

STYLISH MEATBALLS

1/2 cup rice
1 tablespoon grated onions.
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
Pre can tomatoe soup
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 can water
1/8 teaspoon pepper
2 tablesp. chopped green pepper.
Wash rice thoroughly. Mix meat, rice and seasoning. Shape into small balls and drop into tomato soup, to which water, onion and green pepper have been added. Cook slowly for forty minutes.

Serve on hot plate with tomato sauce over them. This is a good meat stretcher.

For the oldsters among our readers, and also for those of us of any age who suffer from a "let-down" feeling of fatigue before the day is half gone, we offer the following brief resume of a fine article originally printed in Better Homes and Garden Magazine:

Are You Growing Old Needlessly?

Medical minds, through many experiments, are beginning to suspect that the chronic symptoms of old age may not be age at all, but instead the result of long-continued deficiency in diet

Forgetfulness, sleeplessness, poor appetite, irritability, etc. are being traced to just plain malnutrition. When the family has grown and gone, older people do not bother to shop, cook and eat correctly; their stomachs gradually shrivel and they, literally, starve to death.

Good eating habits should start from babyhood and continue on through life, but it is never too late to start staving off those above mentioned symptoms. Scientists say, to keep in perfect health we must:

Start the day with a good breakfast, such as fruit, cereal AND eggs.

Drink three glasses of milk a day.

Eat one or more servings of leafy, green or yellow vegetables, plus two or more servings of other vegetables or fruit.

If you are overweight, use fruit and vegetables to keep the stomach happy. And make fat only 1/10 of your caloric intake.

Eat cheese for calcium to keep the teeth and bones tough and healthy.

Get as much carbohydrate as possible from whole grain.

Eat citrus fruits every day.

Use tea, coffee and alcohol only in moderate amounts, and if you have a favorite relish or other pick-me-up, don't discard it; it may be just what you need to keep your appetite in trim.

Our life span is being increased every year, and with health and vigor added to the increased years, life holds unlimited possibilities.

Household Hints:

To clean suede shoes, gloves or pocketbooks, rub them with a cloth moistened in vinegar. Then rub with a stiff brush.

To preserve the life of a wire clothesline, coat it with hot paraffin, white shellac or aluminum paint. If you have a rope clothesline, soak it in hot water, hang it to dry, and then rub a cake of wax over it.

Poem For Mother's Day:

If I were asked to give a thought which one word would speak
A unity of brotherhood,
a sympathy complete,
A hundred happy cheery ways,
a mind that knows its own,
Contented midst a throng of folk,
yet peaceful when alone,
A heart that sheds its silent glow
to brighten many another,
Without a moment of delay, I'd say
"You mean my mother."

RECREATION CENTRE IMPROVED

The grounds about the Recreation Centre are being improved with a graveled parking lot, walks and a big lawn.
